

John Allcock (Third), Chris Fisher (Second) and Jeff Sizer (First) receive their trophies from Mick Lewis

Richard's model didn't fare well in a brush with Jeff Sizer during their semi-final bout

Copeman Tuned DS5...

Alex. Reid with standard size Warlord.

John Spink's before and after Chris Fisher...

Richard Stitson brought a fine array of models. Roger Fisher had some new shapes, including a rival to the Squig (Bumblebug in purple). Jeff Sizer's very tidy Anduril at the start of the day.

Edward Reid helped with preparation and pitting for Alex. Reid and Jeff Sizer

Jeff Sizer removed Moggs Morris' streamer in one

John Allcock on his way to victory over Roger Fisher in the Loser's round

Graham Chilvers and Richard Stitson testing build quality

Roger Fisher and John Taylor

Richard Herbert zeroing in on John Allcock, though his bout ended badly...

...with more entrails ripped out.

Jeff Sizer and Richard Stitson (?)

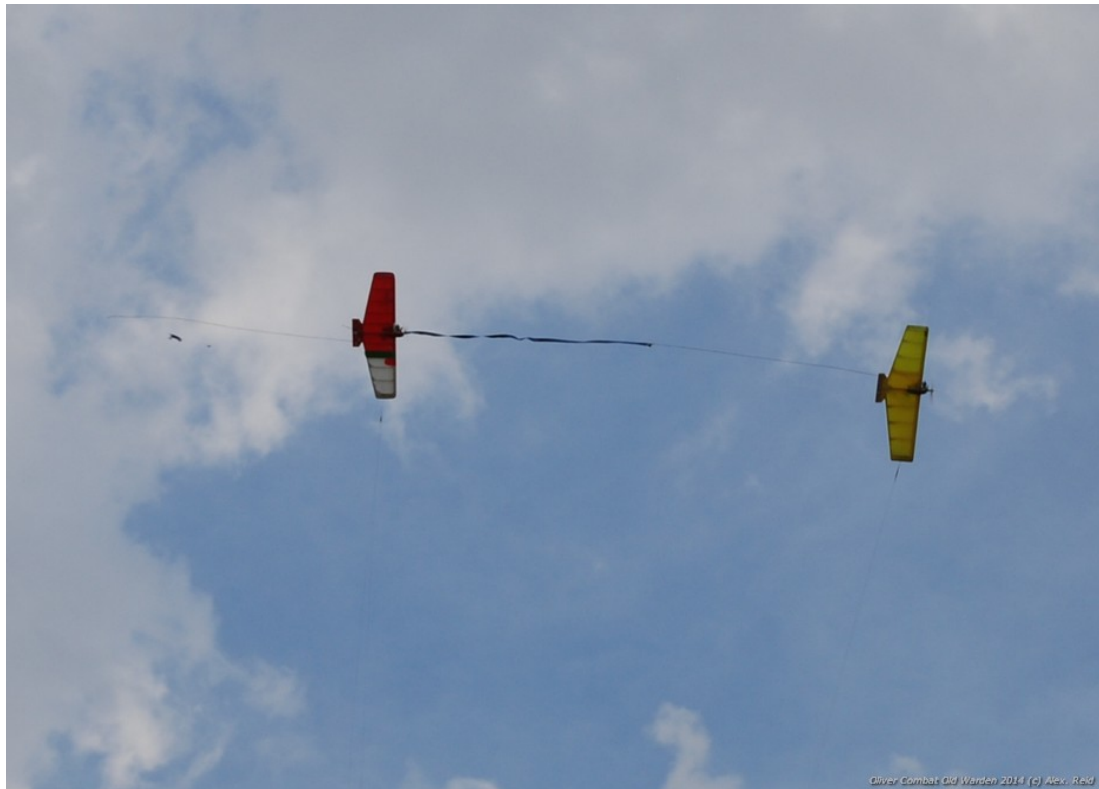

Chris Fisher and Richard Stitson

Jeff Sizer and John Taylor

Chris Fisher has John Allcock in his sights

Chris Fisher nibbling at John Allcock's streamer as he heads for the semi final

Jeff Sizer and Chris Fisher have a very close shave (tearing Jeff's wing covering, as seen below)

Jeff Sizer's Anduril with special Fisher-mods!

Chris Fisher carrying his streamer, which Jeff had removed in the close pass above.

Unfortunately Chris's lines broke resulting in high ground time, leaving Jeff victorious.